

Angelica Cantanti

The Angelica Cantanti Cantabile Choir

Director: Ann Schrooten

Accompanist: Jeffrey Patry

Ages: Grades 4-6

Rehearsals: Mondays 4:15 to 5:45 p.m., St. Michael's Lutheran Church, 9201 Normandale Boulevard

Philosophy: Cantabile will sing some unison music, two-part songs and songs with simple three-part harmonies. The main purpose is to learn to sing beautifully and correctly using the best of choral literature from a variety of cultures. Performance opportunities can help the groups achieve this goal, but it is the learning that goes on in the weekly rehearsals that is most important. To sing beautifully and correctly, singers learn proper posture, correct breathing to produce a free floated tone and sensitively shaped phrases, good diction and articulation, how to release tension in the body, and how to listen and blend. Other important objectives for the singers are to learn to focus and concentrate on all aspects of music-making; to work as a well-disciplined, caring team; to learn to read music; to become aware of music history, musical styles, and the place of music in various cultures; and to become aware of the power of music as a form of expression.

Director Ann Schrooten: Ms. Schrooten joined Angelica Cantanti in 2006 as the director of Varsity Choir, now Cantabile. A native of southern Minnesota, Ms. Schrooten holds the B.M. degree in Vocal Music Performance from Saint Olaf College, and the M.M. degree in Choral Conducting from the University of Minnesota. As a college choral conductor and private voice instructor, she has held sabbatical replacement positions at the University of Wisconsin in La Crosse (2003) and the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul (2003-2005). Over the last twenty years, Ms. Schrooten has also led choirs of all ages in Lutheran parishes – both large and small. She continues to work musically with children and youth at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church in Minneapolis. This fall, Ms. Schrooten will join the Ensemble Singers of Vocal Essence, a professional Twin Cities Choir directed by Phillip Brunelle.

Raised in a musical family, Ms. Schrooten learned early in life how to harmonize by ear and that when groups gather – whatever the reason – there MUST be singing! Ms. Schrooten states that she is dedicated to the philosophy that music, and singing in particular, can help us to traverse continents, cultures, and even time itself. She is completely fascinated by the human voice: its physical make-up, its potential to communicate ideas, and most of all, its power to transform our spirits.

