ANGELICA CANTANTI YOUTH CHOIRS — The Angelica Cantanti Youth Choirs (ACYC), founded in 1980, is an award winning children's community choral program and among one of the oldest in the Twin Cities. Recognized for its outstanding music education and renowned for excellence in performance, ACYC has become an established pillar of our arts community. The Artistic Staff includes Directors Ann Williams, Michelle Gehrz, Elizabeth Egger, Philip Brown and Nancy Grundahl. The ACYC organization offers ten ensembles, serving youth from grades K-12, with an adaptive class for singers with special needs and an alumni adult chorus. ACYC singers performed at the 2018 Super Bowl at US Bank Stadium in Minneapolis and were named "Best Community Choir in MN" by WCCO-TV. Learn more at www.angelicacantanti.org.

ANGELICA CANTANTI CONDUCTORS

ANN WILLIAMS is the Conductor of the Con Brio Choir and also leads Angelica's Vivace choir (grades 3-6). She received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Music and Elementary Education from The College of St. Benedict, then earned her MA in Music Education at the University of St. Thomas. Ann is inspired by youth and loves teaching. For the past thirty-six years, she has been a classroom educator, music educator and youth choir director. Her directing experience includes the auditioned District 279 Children's Chorus, the St. Alphonsus Children's Choir, and was a founding director of the Twin Cities Youth Chorale (TCYC), an auditioned children's chorus in the northwest suburbs of Minneapolis. Over the years Ann's choirs have had the distinction of performing at both state and national conventions for the National Association for Music Education (NAfME and MMEA) as well as the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA-MN) fall conference. Ann was also selected as an elementary honors choir co-director for ACDA-MN. Ann was a member of the Education Board for the Dale Warland Singers (DWS), and assisted with curriculum writing for both the DWS, and the Osseo Area Schools. She holds memberships in both ACDA and the National Association for Music Education (NAfME). As a vocalist, Ann currently serves as a cantor at the Basilica of St. Mary, Minneapolis. Ann recently received the College of Saint Benedict's 2024 Distinguished Alumna Award for her work in music education and children's choral music.

PHILIP BROWN is the conductor of the Treble Singers and the Cantanti Singers and is the Director of Choral Activities at Totino-Grace High School. He graduated summa cum laude from Bethany College (KS), majoring in K-12 music education and has his M.M. degree in music education from Northern Arizona University. His choral groups have been selected for performances at CMEA Conference, CU-Boulder Madrigal Festival, MMEA Mid-Winter Conference, ACDA-MN Fall Conference, NC-ACDA Conference, MSU-Mankato Choral Festival, ACDA-MN Choral Arts Finale, St. Olaf College Choir Festival, Concordia College Choir Festival, Northern Voice Festival, and the Americana Portrait Festival with Mack Wilberg. Philip was honored as the 2011 ACDA-MN Young Director of the Year. He was selected as the Director of Note for Minnesota by Choral Director Magazine in 2012. In 2013 he received the VocalEssence/ACDA-MN Creative Programming Award for his repertoire philosophy and programming. Philip directed the ACYC Treble Singers at the 2019 National ACDA Conference in Kansas City, the Cantanti Singers at the 2024 ACDA Midwestern Conference in Omaha, NE and last spring was the guest conductor for the Singers in Accord choral ensemble. Philip is an active clinician and is professionally affiliated with ACDA and NAfME. Recently he was named the ACDA Repertoire and Resource Chair for Senior High School choirs and will lead the Cantanti Singers in March 2025 at the National ACDA Conference in Dallas, Texas.

MICHELLE GEHRZ is the conductor of Cantabile Choir and also leads Angelica's Prelude Choir Class (K-1) and Prep Choir Class (grades 1-3). Michelle is a passionate and joyful choral conductor, music educator, accompanist, church musician, and organist in the Twin Cities. She holds degrees in music education, sacred music, and organ performance from St. Olaf College, University of Notre Dame, and University of St. Thomas (ABT) and has her Orff Certification from UST. Michelle is the Artistic Director of Bella Lumina – an adult treble choir based in Hopkins, and also directs the Music Association of Minnetonka Senior Chorale (55+). She is a collaborative pianist for ACDA-MN Honor Choirs, MMEA All-State Choirs, Minnetonka High School, and Mound Westonka High School. She has served as the R&R Chair for Children's/Youth Choirs for ACDA-MN. Michelle was the conductor of the ACDA-MN 4-5-6 Girls State Honor Choir in May 2023. Her school music teaching career has spanned all grade levels K-12 and has included teaching at Mounds Park Academy (St. Paul), St. Croix Preparatory Academy (Stillwater), and in the Wayzata School District. She has served as Organist/Choir Director at many churches including the Cathedral of St. Paul, Lake of the Isles Lutheran, Mount Calvary Lutheran (Excelsior), Hennepin Avenue UMC, and St. Anthony Park UCC. Michelle recently received the 2024 Choral Director of the Year award from ACDA-MN. Michelle's greatest calling and wish for her time on this earth is simply to bring people together in singing. "I hope to be a catalyst for others to spread light, to find hope, and to feel immense joy through song!"

ELIZABETH EGGER is a conductor and singer whose career is grounded in her mission to educate, create, and explore to help young singers develop their authentic voice. A passionate teaching artist, Beth incorporates playfulness with her students and always leaves room for exploration. Beth is the conductor of the ACYC Concert Choir and is the choir director at Scott Highlands Middle School in Apple Valley, MN. With 18 years of experience, Beth has held teaching and conducting roles in various schools and churches across Minnesota and Wisconsin. Under Beth's artistic leadership, her ensembles achieved notable recognition, performing at the MMEA Midwinter Convention in 2014 and were featured as a clinic choir for the ACDA Fall Conference in both 2015 and 2022. Notably, Beth conducted ACYC singers during the 2018 Super Bowl LII performance and led a 25-member ensemble in the children's chorus for Director Osmo Vänskä's season finale of Mahler's Symphony of a Thousand in 2022. In the upcoming 2025 season, Beth is looking forward to directing the 7-8 SSA Honor Choir for ACDA of Minnesota, presenting sessions at MMEA and ACDA of Minnesota conferences, and directing the Children's Chorus for Turandot with Minnesota Orchestra. Beth is also a singer at heart, and has sung with several professional ensembles including The Singers - Minnesota Choral Artists, Milwaukee Choral Artists, Florentine Opera, and Skylight Music Theatre. She earned her MA in Music Education at the University of St. Thomas and BM summa cum laude in Vocal Performance and Music Education at the University of Minnesota. Follow her vibrant journey on Instagram: @choirsips.

CON BRIO (2:30pm concert)

This season's Con Brio selections celebrate cherished traditions. From the vibrant energy of a beloved spiritual, to the fresh interpretations of ancient texts and the beauty of the season's transitions from fall to winter, each piece was chosen to open hearts and revive timeless moments and emotions. (And of course, we can never resist adding some silly holiday fun.)

Joshua Fit the Battle ..... African-American Spiritual Arr. by Greg Gilpin
Sanctus ..... Traditional Latin Text Setting by Greg Gilpin
Agnus Dei ..... Traditional Latin Text Setting by Ruth Morris Gray
Falling Snow ..... Anonymous Poetry with additional lyrics and music by Janet Gardner
Shoulda Been a North Pole Elf ..... Lyrics by Beck/Fisher, music by Andy Beck

CANTABILE (2:30pm concert)

Cantabile's repertoire is all about using one's voice to uplift and bring unity! Our concert begins with two songs, Lift Up your Voice and Singabahambayo, that focus on using our voices to lift up others and ourselves in the name of unity and freedom. How Can I Keep from Singing, a traditional American hymn, reminds us that when life gets heavy and hope is waning, we can find strength to carry on through song and faith. I Have a Voice is empowering and important for all of us to hear, especially our young people. Each of us has a unique voice to share and can make a difference in this world. The power of one voice can be amplified when we combine our collective voices for love, compassion, and hope. This is what singing in a choir is all about! May the combined voices of the Cantabile singers lift you up and bring inspiration to you.

Lift Up Your Voice (Kwa Maneno Nguvu) ..... James DesJardins
Singabahambayo ..... Trad. South African, Arr. Henry Leck
How Can I Keep From Singing? ..... Robert Lowry, Anna Bartlett Warner, Arr. Stephen Rew
I Have a Voice ..... Frank Wildhorn and Robin Lerner, Arr. Mac Huff
Soloists: Alayna Moenga, Anne Temple-Hanson
A Melody of Love ..... Jim Papoulis

CANTANTI SINGERS (2:30pm and 4:30 concert)

The Cantanti Singers performance explores the past, celebrates the present, and anticipates the future. Exultate Justi in Domino celebrates joy and beauty while musically emphasizing the interplay between vocal parts, characteristic of a Renaissance motet. Hagenberg's Splendor is inspired by a text by St. Ambrose; the composer combines vibrant musical textures with profound textual interpretation to convey a powerful sense of light and majesty. Time explores the concept of time and how it dictates our lives; the line between time's reality and its invention is blurry, so the composer depicts this by writing a repeating lyric that erodes as the piece unfolds. Hymn of Acxiom is a haunting exploration of personal information in the digital age, reflecting on how technology promises connection and fulfillment while raising questions about privacy, manipulation, and control, leaving listeners with a mix of feelings. The Shadow Dance of Sylva explores the interplay between light and shadow, both literally and metaphorically and portrays a mystical and evocative journey through hidden groves, tangled vines, and ancient trees.

Exultate Justi in Domino ..... Andreas Hakenberger
Splendor from "Illuminare" ..... Elaine Hagenberg
Time ..... Jennifer Lucy Cook
Hymn of Acxiom ..... Vienna Teng. Arr. Kerry Marsh
The Shadow Dance of Sylva ..... Darius Lim

CONCERT CHOIR (4:30pm concert)

Concert Choir is delighted to share a set of five songs that journey through the joys of celebration, the beauty of winter, and the transformative power of change. We open with Hodie, a jubilant celebration of the season's energy and hope. Next, two snow songs capture the wonder of winter through playful movements and familiar melodies. We close with songs of change and transformation, celebrating winter as a time of rest and renewal, paving the way for growth and spring's rebirth.

Hodie ..... Jacob Narverud
Snow ..... Franco Prinsloo
Let It Snow! Let It Snow! Let It Snow! ..... Jule Styne, Arr. Joyce Eilers Bacak
Change ..... Melissa Dunphy
Sing Change ..... Kyle Pederson

TREBLE SINGERS (4:30pm concert)

The Treble Singers are excited to share a variety of songs and styles. Be Like the Bird is a stunning round about being raised up and raising others up, even when we lose the sense of a solid foundation beneath us. Cantique De Jean Racine blends charming melodic phrases with lush harmonic treatment. Known is new work by former ACYC Treble Singer, Grace Becker, and speaks of a message about stepping out of fear and into love, finding freedom in vulnerability, and realizing the beauty of being truly seen and understood. How Can I Keep from Singing, was born out of NYC's shutdown in response to Covid-19. The arrangement was suggested to me by Rita Doctor, and the choir's performance today is dedicated to ALL the singers whose singing has been guided by Rita. Untraveled Worlds blends dynamic choral textures with evocative violin and percussion lines to evoke a sense of urgency and adventure.

Please hold applause between first two songs

Be Like the Bird ..... Abbie Betinis

Soloists: Elizabeth Couling, Elizabeth Hersey, Anya Seppala

Cantique De Jean Racine .....Gabriel Faure. Arr. Jean Ashworth Bartle

Known ..... by Grace Becker

Soloist: Meredith Leo

How Can I Keep from Singing..... Rev. Robert Lowry. Arr. by Matt and Adam Podd

Untraveled Worlds .....Paul Halley

ANGELICA CANTANTI DONORS AND FRIENDS

Angelica Cantanti depends on donations for nearly 40% of its annual budget, allowing us to deliver exceptional music education programs and performances to our singers and the community. We are sincerely grateful for the generous and ongoing support of our donors. As a proud member of the Bloomington Fine Arts Council, we extend our heartfelt thanks to Allan and Deborah Schneider for their support. Due to our printing deadline, we apologize if your name was inadvertently omitted.
